Alumni Association Elects Officers For Golden Jubilee Year

J. Henry Hipskind, '05-'11, secretary-treasurer of the Alumni Association for twenty-one years, was elected national president at a business meeting held in connection with the homecoming reunion.

One hundred and fifty-five former students registered in the Alumni Office for the two-day celebration, Sunday and Monday, June 23-24.

National officers were elected during a meeting Monday morning. At the opening of the balloting, Mr. Hipskind asked that his name be withdrawn from the secretary-treasurer nomination, because, he said, "from now on that position should be filled by someone on the campus."

The Rev. John F. Cogan, '92-'96, of Hamilton, O., then nominated the Fort Wayne business man for the presidency of the Association. Father Cogan, oldest alumnus in the Association, said, "We should elect Mr. Hipskind president to show our appreciation for his many years of faithful service in the Association."

Other officers elected were: First vice-president, Anthony H. Knapke, '98-'99 and '02-'05, Minster, O.; second vice-president, the Rev. Dr. Joseph B. Kenkel, C.PP.S., '07-'13, Collegeville; secretary-treasurer, Edward Fischer, '28-'34, Rensselaer; historian, the Rev. Sylvester Ley, C.PP.S.,

PUMAS SLATE LOUISVILLE UNDER LIGHTS

ALUMNI AND FRIENDS TO ATTEND DANCE AFTER CONTEST

A gala Homecoming, which gives promise of making every Alumnus who attends feel only half his age, is being cooked-up on the campus for Saturday and Sunday, October 12 and 13.

The event will be the official kick-off for the Golden Jubilee celebration that will carry throughout the school year.

The football game between the University of Louisville and St. Joe will start early in the evening, probably at 7 or 7:30, so that a colorful football dance will get underway by 9:30. The dance will be given especially for the Alumni, their wives, and friends.

According to the dope book, the Pumas should defeat U. of L. St. Joe has faced the Cardinals three times, and each time the team that played on its home gridiron has come out on top.

There is a possibility that the two new halls, Xavier and Noll, will be dedicated Saturday afternoon. The statue of Father Seifert, which will stand in front of the hall named in his honor, may be unveiled Sunday afternoon. However, a definite program cannot be announced until the next issue of CONTACT.

Each Alumnus who expects to attend is requested to notify the Alumni Office as soon as possible, so that reservations might be made in Rensselaer.

Doctor In Arkansas

OUTSTANDING in Little Rock, Ark., medical circles is Dr. Ralph E. McLochlin, '18-'29. He has a general diagnosis and internal medicine practice, besides being clinic instructor in medicine at the University of Arkansas School of Medicine; secretary of staff of St. Vincent's Infirmary, and medical director of the National Old Line Insurance Co.

Remember how we used to look forward to the coming of Redpath entertainers? Magicians, lecturers, singers, and musicians held us spellbound many an evening in Alumni Hall.

Until Stuff Is Here

The first issue of Stuff, student newspaper, will be a week or ten days late, because the registration date has been postponed until September 30. So for just this once, we'll cut in on Stuff's territory and give you a summary of the news that broke during the summer.

Death came suddenly to Joseph (Jim) McIntyre, known to most Alumni as "the one arm night watchman." Few Alumni knew that Joseph, not Jim, was his given name. Here's how he got the nickname: When the Rev. Edwin Kaiser, C.PP.S., '09-'15, was a student at St. Joe, the Rev. James McIntyre, C.PP.S. '04-'10, was also on the campus. Young Kaiser got in the habit of calling his fellow student Jim McIntyre; so he transferred the name to the nightwatchman. It stuck. Jim, who was born in County Tyrone, Ireland, May 15, 1867, and who spent thirty years of his life on the campus, died August 2, and was buried in the Community Cemetery, at Carthagena, Ohio.

Jim McIntyre

There has been more activity on the campus this summer than at a three-ring circus. The construction of Xavier and Noll Halls and the fieldhouse is not the only work going on. Add together all the work that is being done inside the various buildings and it will amount approximately to the construction of another building.

The Main Building dormitories are no more. They have been partitioned into rooms for priests and brothers. What used to be known as the faculty building, will be used as a student residence hall this year.

Four familiar faces will be missing when the students return. Father Maurice Ehleringer is retiring to St. Charles' Seminary, Carthagena. Father Werner Rauh has been appointed pastor of St. Paul's, Lyons, Kans., after serving as Dean of Men at St. Joseph's for two years. Father Urban Siegrist, who has been in the Science Department for the past four years, has been named chaplain and instructor at St. Angela's Academy, Carroll, Ia. Father Othmar Missler, for the past two years Director of the Community students, has been appointed professor at the Seminary, Carthagena. Two new professors will be on the campus, this fall. Father Cletus Kern, for two years professor of Philosophy at the Seminary, will teach the same branch at St. Joe. Father Boniface Dreiling, who received his Master of Science degree at Catholic U. in June, will succeed Father Siegrist.

Writes Magazine Article

Paul Monastyrski, '34-'36, of Whiting, wrote "Blood for Transfusion," leading article in the September 1 issue of the Youth section, of Our Sunday Visitor.

THE ROUNDUP by Coach Joe Dienhart

The columns on this page are wider than on the following page; so we moved over for just this time. We have a little more to say than usual. The reason THE ROUNDUP is more long winded is that Stuff, with its excellent sports page, won't be out for a few more weeks.

If any of you Alumni can get to Indianapolis, Saturday, September 21, please be there. We'll need several bushels of moral support when we open our season against Butler University in the Butler Bowl.

Speed and perfect timing will be our only hope, because the Bulldogs will have one of the heaviest lines in the country this year. From the way things are coming along now, our men will go into the game in fine physical condition and with good mental attitude. When a team is feeling that way, anything might happen.

Coaches Dick Scharf, Henry Kosalko and I are doing our best to get the team in good shape for this anything-but-easy schedule:

Sept. 21—BUTLER at Indianapolis.
Sept. 28—VALPO U. at Valparaiso.
Oct. 6—XAVIER U. at Cincinnati.
Oct. 12—U. of LOUISVILLE at Rensselaer.
Oct. 19—EVANSVILLE at Rensselaer.
Oct. 26—CENTRAL NORMAL at Danville.
No. 10—ST. NOBERT at West DePere.

Most of you Kentucky, southern Ohio, and southern Indiana Alumni should be able to get to the Xavier Stadium in Cincinnati on October 6, because that's a Sunday. We have one other Sunday afternoon game. That's against St. Norbert College, at West DePere, Wisconsin.

Your Homecoming game on October 12 against the University of Louisville gives promise of being the best contest of the season. The Cardinals and the Pumas have been building up a friendly rivalry the past few years that may grow into a tradition.

Thirty-three gridders reported for practice. That's a little smaller number than we had last year, because now we are under the freshman rule. In other words, freshmen are no longer eligible to play on the St. Joe varisty. They will have a team of their own and will play freshmen teams of other schools.

The squad lost two men through graduation,, Quarterback Bill Curosh, of Whiting, and Center Bill Kennedy, of Beech Grove, Ind.

The average man on the squad weighs 180 pounds. His height is a fraction of an inch under six-foot.

Since last year's varsity was practically a freshman team, the 1940 edition is predominantly a squad of sophomores. Last year the fellows wrote four victories in the record book against three defeats.

HISTORY REPEATS ITSELF

(Courtesy Telegraph-Register)

REV. RICHARD DIRKSEN REV. ROBERT WUEST

The Society of the Precious Blood is becoming a family affair. Since the ordination of the Rev. Robert Wuest, '31-'34, and the Rev. Richard Dirksen, '31-'34, there are now three Wuest brothers and three Dirksen brothers to join the ranks of three representatives from the Landoll, Pax, and Lutkemeier families. Father Robert is assistant at St. Mary's, Springfield, O., and Father Richard is assistant at Precious Blood Church, Fort Wayne. Since the ordination of the Rev. Richard Baird, '32-'35, on September 8, there are forty-five priests in the Society who are in a position to say, "I have a brother who is a priest in this community." Young Father Baird is the brother of the Rev. Robert Baird, '25-'26, missionary.
